

From Custom Sensors & Technologies (CST) to InnoVista Sensors™

Following the sale of some of the activities of its portfolio (Brands: BEI Kimco, BEI Sensors, Kavlico, Crydom and Newall), the company called Custom Sensors & Technologies (CST) is reorganizing.

As of, December 1st, 2015, the company InnoVista Sensors™ is created with the Crouzet Aerospace, Crouzet Automation, Crouzet Control, Crouzet Motors, Crouzet Switches and Systron Donner Inertial commercial brands.

With its dynamic and well established commercial brands, this change of identity relies on a dual ambition:

- Increase our presence in the sensors and other components markets at the heart of Automated Systems and critical applications.
- Strengthen our innovation policy as a major axis for development

Through our recognized expertise, reliability and adaptability, we are strengthening our investment towards Excellence and Innovation.

This evolution confirms our renewed commitment to bring the performance enhancing solutions that will meet current and future market demands.
